Outline of Presentation

Why did you come to college?

What is the value of an education?

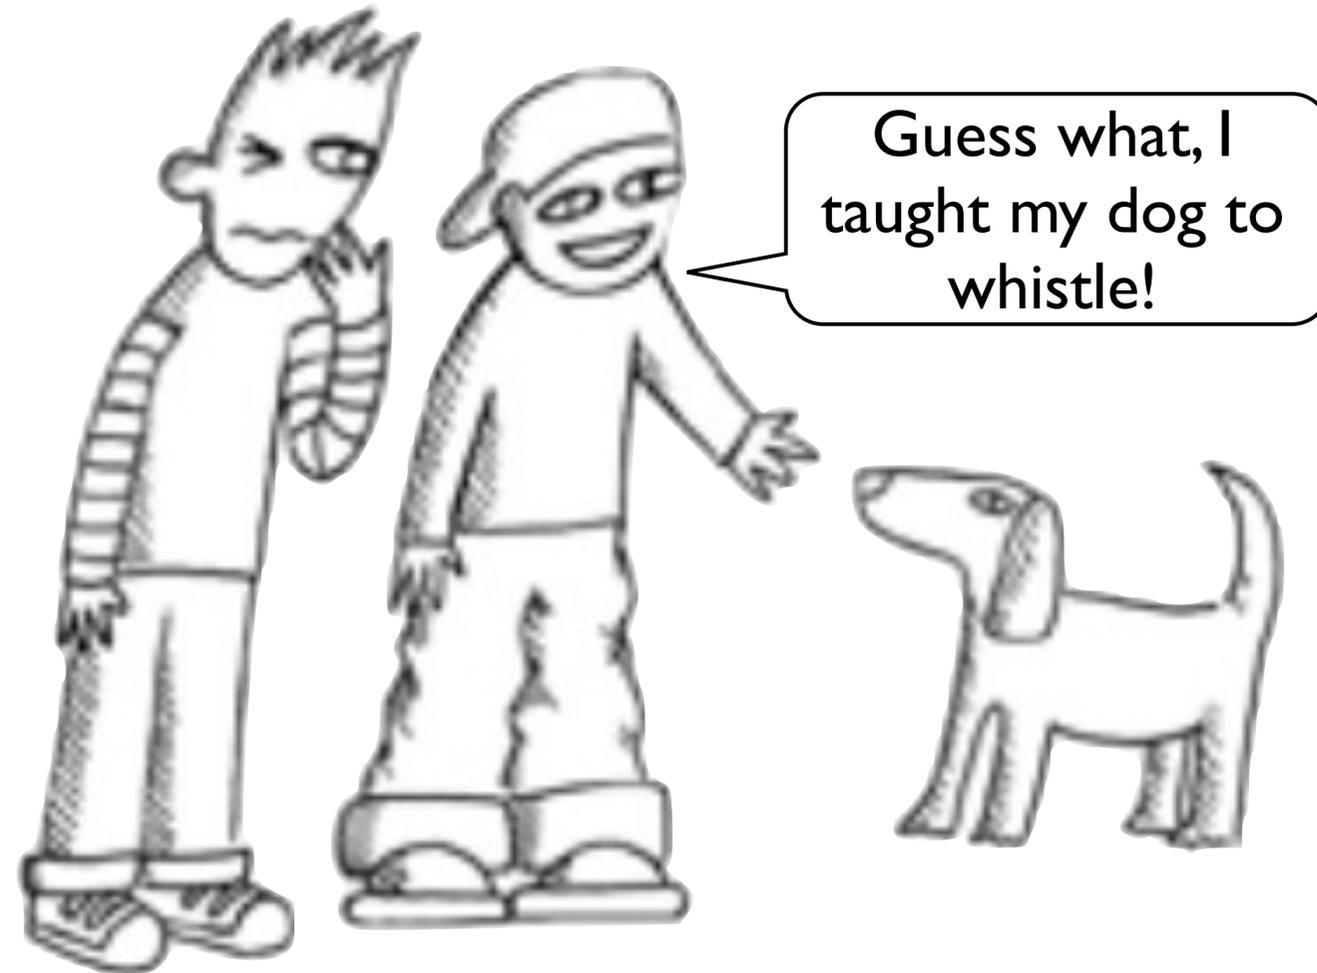

Why is research important?

Give examples of student research

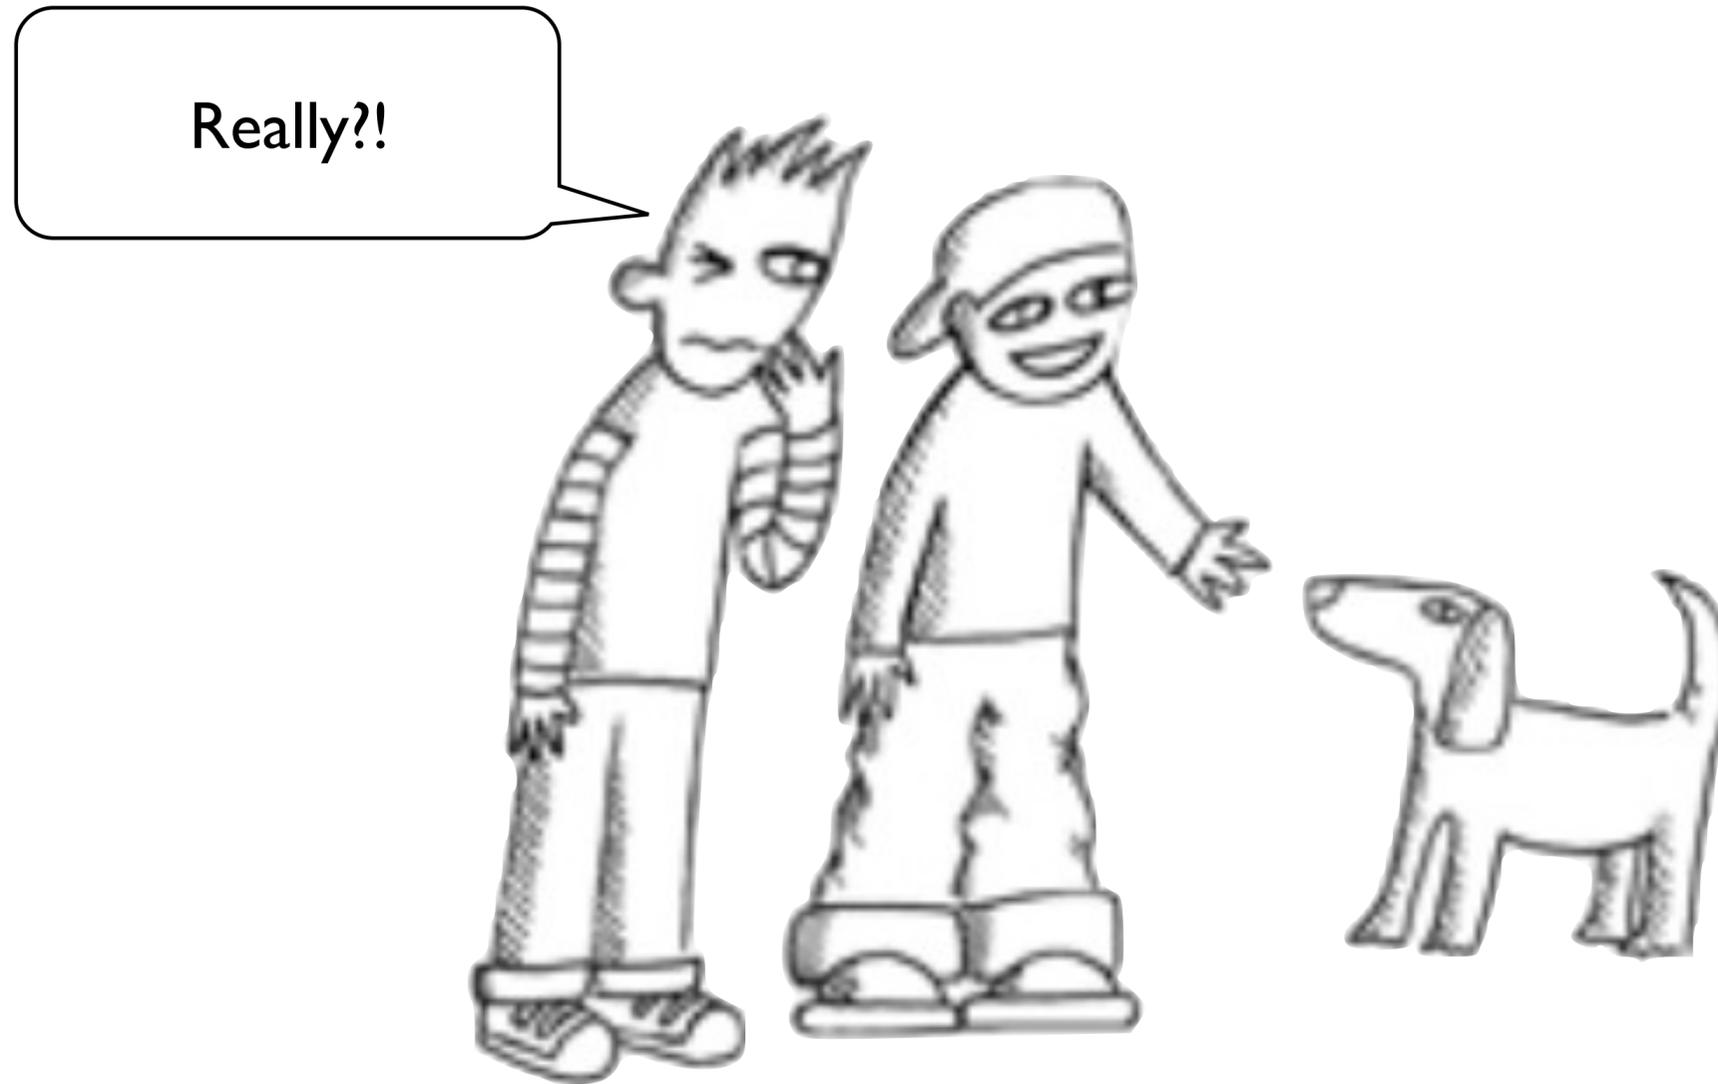

New approach to intro bio as a model for other courses.

What does it take to become educated?

Are you training for one job?

Bureau of Labor Statistics, 2008

- born in the years 1957 to 1964
- jobs from age 18 to age 42
- average of 10.8 jobs
- more jobs ages 18 - 24 than 36 - 42
- 23% held at least 15 jobs
- 14% held zero to four jobs

The image shows a screenshot of the App Store interface, specifically the 'Best Apps of 2011' and 'Best Games of 2011' sections. The top section, 'Best Apps of 2011', is sorted by 'Featured' and displays a grid of 20 app cards. Each card includes the app's icon, name, category, star rating, number of ratings, and price. Some apps are marked as 'INSTALLED'. The bottom section, 'Best Games of 2011', is also sorted by 'Featured' and displays a grid of 16 game cards with similar information. The interface is dark-themed with white text and colorful icons.

Why is it that you can look up this,
but if you hit a word in class,
you ask the teacher what it means?

Take charge of your own education.

Raise your hand if you learned a lot by doing your research.

Raise your hand if you learned a lot by doing your research.

How many tests did you take on your research?

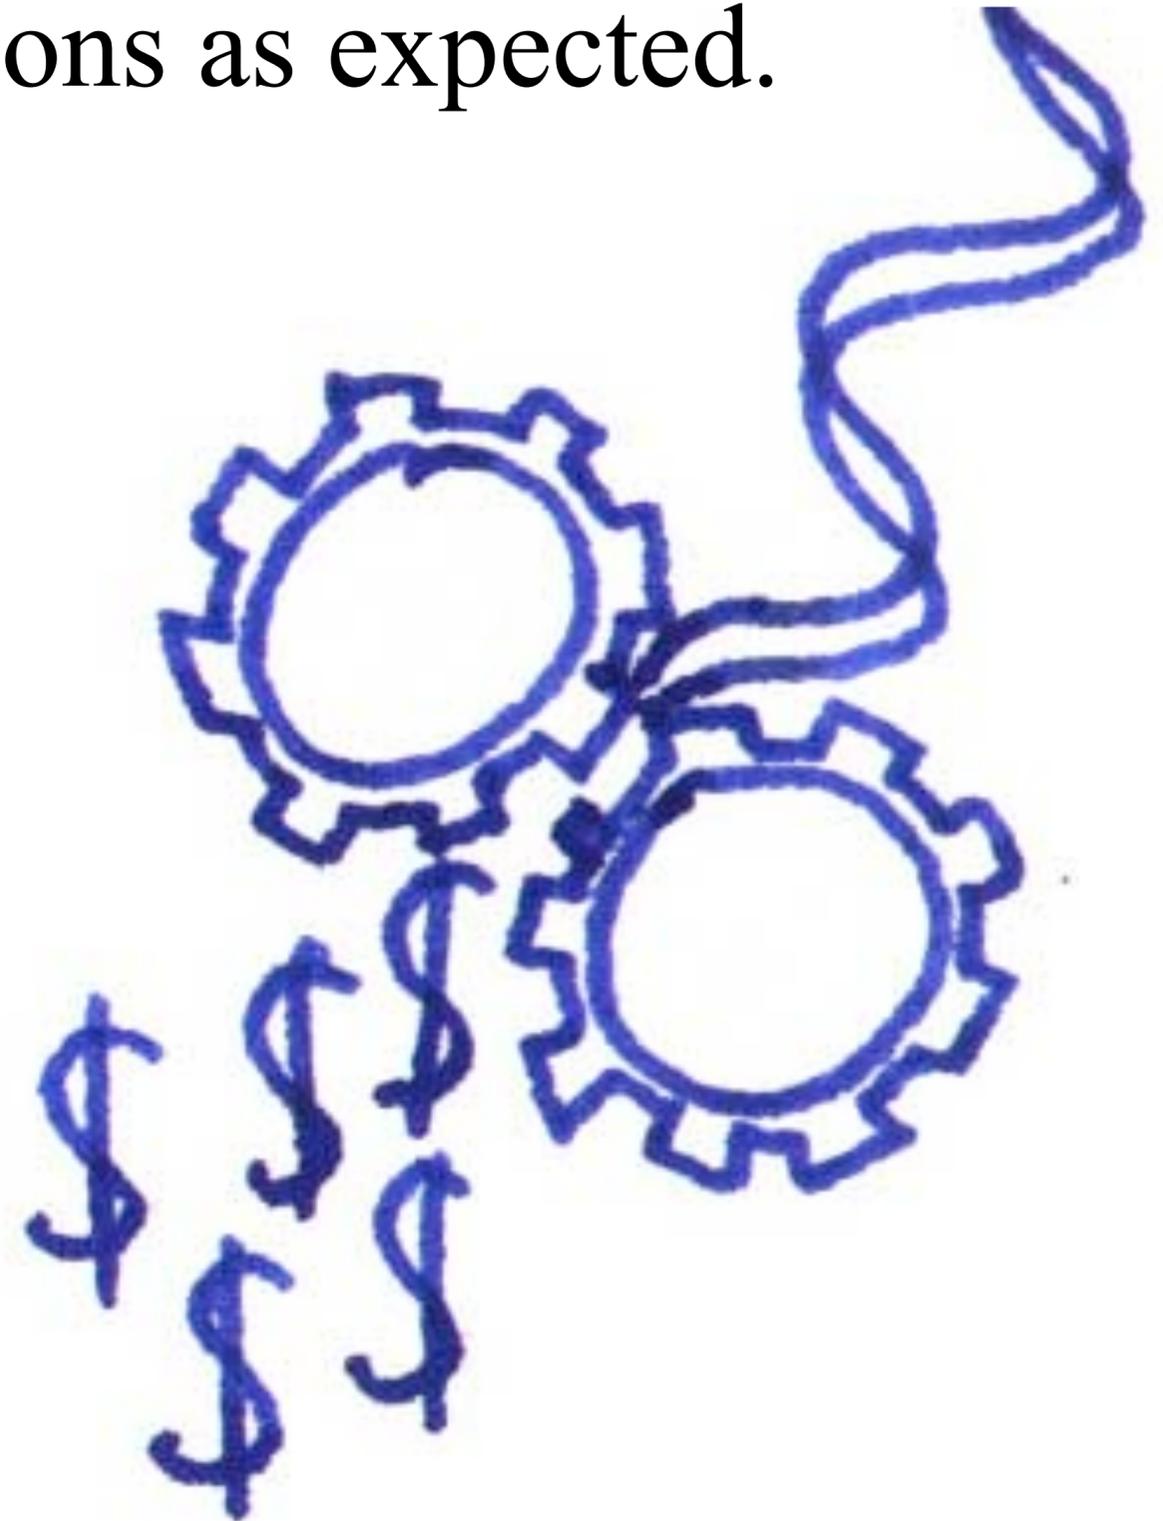

How many times did you have to memorize factoids?

Why should course work be any different than research?

Would you rather settle for a blue collar B or try for an A and risk failure?

Thomas J. Watson, founder of IBM

“Would you like me to give you a formula for success? It's quite simple, really. Double your rate of failure. You are thinking of failure as the enemy of success. But it isn't at all. You can be discouraged by failure or you can learn from it, so go ahead and make mistakes. Make all you can. Because remember that's where you will find success.”
